This promise however, is only to a certain classthe class that loves God. Hat this fact only veritles another admonition of Holy Writ, A. c., that it is better to serve God. So you see, corry thing only confirms the declarations of seripture.

But I must close, I cannot ito so, however, without expressing my earnest hope that the voters of Ohio county will remember my old friend and brother, W. C. Chapman, at the apnate acquaintance with him while n of a boarder, I feel confident he would serve the county as Representative in an acceptable manner. I was specially pleased with his communication in the last HERALD. His plan gives the people an opportunity to choose their officers unblased by political tricksters. The utilice should seek the man and not the man the office. But enough, I am, as ever, Your friend, etc.,
